Genesis 1:1–2:3 (excerpt)

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters... [excerpt continues]

Then God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness... So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul...

John 1:1–18 (excerpt)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him...
